

Ruth J. Hinkle

January 2, 1932 - March 24, 2025

Ruth J. Hinkle, age 93, of Delbarton, West Virginia, departed from this life on Monday, March 24, 2025 while at the Tug Valley Appalachian Regional Hospital in South Williamson, Kentucky. She was born on January 2, 1932 to the late Geroge Verner Sandbloom and Norma Peterson in Sioux City, Iowa. In addition to her parents, she is predeceased by her sister, Joyce Anderson, and her husband, James E. Hinkle.

Ruth dedicated her life to her family, working as a homemaker. She was married to her devoted husband, James, for 59 years and together, they built a beautiful life of 2 children, 4 grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. She was an attendee of Central High School in Sioux City, Iowa and later became a member of the Elizabeth Chapter 37 Order of Eastern Star where she remained a member for 50 years. Ruth loved to crochet, knit, do her dot to dots, and she especially loved going to the beach with family and spending time with her grandchildren. She will be dearly missed.

She is survived by her daughter, Linda Springer, her son, Leslie Hinkle, her grandchildren, Jason Baisden, Mandy Hinkle, Bruce Springer, and Autumn (Steven) Mullins, her great granddaughter, Helena Mullins, her sister, Dorothy Watson, her ex son-in-law and special friends, John Springer, and her special niece, Frances White. She also leaves behind a host of other loving family members and friends.

A graveside service for Ruth will be held on Friday, March 28, 2025 at 1:00 PM at the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Pecks Mill, West Virginia. Chafin Funeral Home is proudly serving the family.

“ My grandmother was always there for me when I was on the out with others in my family. She never expected me to do anything she just let me unload on her and I will miss that so much about her. She has been my rock for the past 5 almost six years and maybe even before that so she will be very very missed from my life
