My first cousins Scotty and Reva live next door at Belo we played together although he was 4 years older than me and my sister Lummie was 2 years younger than Scotty. We were always close. My family moved to Cincinnati when I was about 5 years old. One summer me and Scotty went with Uncle Charles Dempsey to Georgia to get peaches for the store at Belo.

Scotty and Reva were my 1st cousins (my mother, Virginia Dempsey and their mother Arva were sisters). Even though my family lived in Huntington, I would spend some summers with their family. I have very fond memories of those days. Both Scotty and Reva were fine people.
