“ A very special lady who raised a very special family. Quiet, reserved, and firm in her belief in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She instilled this belief in all of her family. It is hard to lose a mother, as Angie and I discussed just how hard it is. But Shirley will never have to feel the pains and illnesses of this old world ever again. Now we wait upon the Lord to fill the void in our lives that only God can do. I pray for peace, comfort, and strength for the Woolum family and friends. I do believe that if Shirley could leave one message for one and all, it would be “Prepare to meet thy God.”

I'm sorry not to be able to attend the services, but due to illnesses in my family I thought it wise not to come. Still, my thoughts and prayers go out to Bill and his wonderful family. You know that if you have a need, don't hesitate to let me know if I can help in any way.

1Peter 5:10-11.

May God's peace, love, comfort, and strength be upon you all.

With our love from:

Larry, Bernice, Krissy, Eric and all of the Carter family!

“ I’ll always remember when I was little riding in her Volkswagen Beetle. She was a fun cousin to hang out with. I know she is hanging out with the family now in heaven.
