“ I've been thinking of something to say to my cousins that would help ease their pain of losing their Mom, my Aunt Susie. I keep coming up with the following. Know your Mom loved you all, know she was and always will be wide open. Know she was the type of person who would always listen to what you say ,then yell at everyone lol 😊. Know she comforted me during some very hard times in my life, she acted like a Mother to me, when my Mom was gone. I'm going to share a few memories.

Aunt Susie and Patty came to my house in NC and wanted to go to the beach. We loaded up all the kids and off to the beach we go. I'm on the shoreline watching Susie and Patty walking into the water, about half way in , I see a huge wave and start yelling at them 🤪. Next minute I see my 73 year old Aunt come rolling head over feet to the shoreline. And I thought to myself omg, she broke a hip, my family's going to kill me. Next thing here comes Patty head over feet. Now I have to get them both out of the water and make sure my Aunt is ok, cause if she's not I'll never hear the end of it. Now all the kids come running to help me. Susie and Patty are laughing so hard they are crying. I think crap my Aunts crying..I get her on shore and I'm asking are you ok , are you hurt.. and she says LOURDY GIRL, THEIR AIN'T A WAVE THAT CAN HURT ME. you worry to much...lol...I made her stay on the blanket till it was time to leave. I was 18 and Susie came to NY to visit. Well I say I'll take you out for a drink. Wrong, their is no going out for A drink . 8 hours later and I'm barely standing. Your mom was fine. We get home and go to bed. I tell Aunt Susie to sleep in my bedroom. I go sleep on the pull out couch, My then husband comes home, strips down to his undies and jumps into bed. Next thing I hear is hey ,hey there, your wife's on the couch. I jump up and run to the bed room and and Aunt Susie is laughing 😊 😊, we both look at my husband and he says what the heck are you doing in my bed, I thought you were on the couch. Susie says I reckon, I was gonna sleep on the couch but your wife fell asleep, so I figured you would turn on the light see her in the living room and sleep in there. Boy was I wrong. Lol Nice Undies, 😊 🤪, we'll since we're all up let's eat. These are just a few memories, One thing is for sure everytime I saw your Mom I always ended up laughing. Your Mom is one of a kind. I will miss her dearly 😭💔. Thank you for the memories ❤️💖, sending love and big Hugs to my cousins.

“ I will miss talking to my sweet Susie. I was fortunate enough to be her case manager for almost the past year. She loved her family so very much and she always knew how to make me laugh even on the phone. I send condolences to her family. I knew she meant the world to you all as well. May you all find peace in your hearts with God's healing love.
