Timothy Ken Moore, age 69, went to his heavenly home on Saturday, November 4, 2023 at Tug Valley Appalachian Regional Hospital. Timothy was born on January 25, 1954 in the city of Williamson, WV to the late Howard Moore and Minnie Kirk. Timothy has been welcomed into his eternal resting place by his parents and brother David Moore. He leaves behind his son Michael Moore and his wife Steph of Jonesboro, TN, his two brothers Keith Moore and Britt Moore of Delbarton, WV, his sister Lynn Caudill and her husband Chip of Delbarton, WV, sister-in-law Pamela Moore of Matewan, WV, his grandchildren Ethan Moore and his wife Shelby, Jamin Moore, Stacy Moore, Taylor Sparks, and Peyton Sparks. Timothy also leaves behind several nieces, nephews, friends, and other close family to cherish his memory.

Tim was described as an outdoorsman. He loved spending his free time fishing with his brother Britt on Pigeon Creek. He was often found spending his days going for walks at the track in Delbarton, WV, getting fresh air, or tinkering in his garage. Another thing he enjoyed doing was watching his hummingbirds from his back porch. Aside from him loving the outdoors, he also liked to spend some time watching TV, relaxing some as well. Tim worked for many years in the mining industry as a Coal Miner and also worked in Mining Sales. Tim was a member of the Living Stone Baptist church, making sure to attend services regularly.

In honoring Tim's wishes, cremation will take place with services being announced at a later date.
