“ My sweet uncle Wall. We were three months apart in age. He lived in W.Va and I lived in Ky. He often came to Ky in the summers and stayed with us: he was a good playmate. He would always laugh at me for trying to shoot a bow and arrow. He was always very kind to me. I never realized it before, but as I look at this photo, we look very much alike. Love to all-my family. Ann Fannin Reed Spruce Pine NC

“ Uncle Wally would always say, " Now honey, The Lord can do whatever He wants. If he wanted to put the world in my shirt pocket, He could and He wouldn't have to make the world any smaller and the pocket no bigger" I told Vanessa last night Wally may have asked the Lord why He never put the world in his shirt pocket... He will me missed.
