“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family as they go through a very sad time of their lives. Wanda was a good woman, she was sweet, kind, and never had a bad word to say about anyone. She and Dewey Lee loved each other and their children and raised their children well. Heaven has gained a sweet angel. May the family find peace of mind in remembering her fondly and lovingly. Although she will no longer be with you in body, her spirit and your memories will never go away. She will surely be missed.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Wanda's family. The sting of death brings us great pain and sorrow as it pierces our heart when we lose a loved one to death. There is life after death so take courage. God has promised at Psalm 30:11 that he will turn your mourning into dancing and to remove your sackcloth of mourning and clothe you with rejoicing. He will do that through the ransom of His son, Jesus. (John 3:16). Let us take comfort in knowing that there will be rejoicing when we are reunited with our dear loved ones in the Paradise Jesus promised (Like 23:43). May the many fond memories of Wanda along with God's promises for our dear loved ones comfort you.
