“ Lillian our hearts are broken over the lose of Arnold...he was one of a kind ...a true Christian man with a heart of gold....there was none kinder or gentler than he. Never once did I see him do anything but smile and laugh...we knew him a long time and loved him with all our hearts...we won't cry for him because he is now with Lola....and with he man he lived for...I know he is much happier now....but that doesn't keep us from crying for you and usfor our great lose but heavens gain.....heaven just got sweeter because it added one of the sweetest men on earth to the fold...may God hold you near when you need it ...and may Arnold's sile be on your lips when you think of him and things will get better how could it not...love you and the family .
