“ My special thoughts and prayers goes out to all the family at this difficult time. My cousin Wirt was a great guy with a witty personality I was always known to him as that city girl cause I was from Columbus, Ohio , when I would visit with my mom (his aunt Annie) he would get me into all kinds of situations, like tell me I can walk on the rocks in the creek knowing they were very slick and I would fall in.... I can hear his mom Aunt Becky "Now Wirt you let her fall and get wet apologize" He would say " she shouldn't be such a dumb city girl" LOL
so many stories so many memories but I loved him. He was three months older then me but he made it clear he was older.

I will miss you Wirt RIP.

My dear friend Wirt. We shared school days, after school times and church times. I will miss your hug at church, you always asked how I was after Lil A passed. You prayed for us when I'd see you in Big Lots. Your beautiful testimonies at church, your love for your family always telling me about how they were doing. Your light will follow you my dear friend. Rest in peace
